

Debby Schneider-Solis

for Board of Directors, Special Education

As a Special Education teacher, Debby has spent over a decade working with students with special needs in different capacities. She is dual-credentialed and has been active with fighting for the rights of students since the beginning of her teaching career. Debby has been Chair of the Special Education Committee, Chapter Chair, Cluster Leader, member of the Steering Committee, member of the House of Representatives, Co-Chair of the UTLA/NEA/CTA Elections Committee, Co-Chair for the WHO Awards Committee, a member of the Prop 39 Committee, member of the Special Education Bargaining Team, CTA State Council Representative, and many more committees throughout the years. As a Board member representing Special Education, Debby will help organize around Special Education issues and fight for what's best for the whole child.
