

Compare

Greg Russell

26 years classroom teaching experience

Distance-learning and in-person pandemic teaching

Promotes and creates candidate debates

Speaks truth to power

Promotes transparency

Promotes democracy

Promotes inclusion

Follows the rule of law

Engages all and listens across any platform

Promotes a respectful workplace

When you say “Jump!”, I’ll jump

You should vote for whomever your critical thinking chose

Be part of Labor Management Reporting & Disclosure Act (LMRDA)

Fact-based decision making

Among the lowest earners of UTLA members

Additionally, I’ve substitute taught in all grades 5th through 12th, nearly every subject (Korean, Sign Language, Wood Shop, Physics, Mild to Moderate, Emotionally Disturbed, librarian, etc.) all across the San Fernando Valley, even into West Los Angeles—I started in Dallas, Texas. I’ve dedicated my life to UTLA.

Cecily Myart-Cruz

17 years classroom teaching experience

No pandemic teaching

Dissuades and boycotts candidate debates

Punishes those speaking the truth

Promotes secrecy

Promotes authoritarianism

Promotes cliquishness

Breaks the rule of law

Dictates on controlled platforms

Promotes a toxic workplace

When she says “Jump!”, you jump

You must vote for her slate

Fight being part of LMRDA

Decisions based on always looking through her “racial lens”

The highest salary of UTLA members