

Jennifer Gottlieb

for Board of Directors, UTLA Valley East

UNION POWER
Member Driven Leadership

Jennifer Gottlieb has been teaching History, AP Government and Ethnic Studies for over 18 years in the district. Since 2006 she has taught at North Hollywood High Zoo Magnet, and beyond being Chapter Chair there for the last six plus years, Jennifer's commitment to union work includes:

- ❖ Member of the House of Representatives
- ❖ Member of the PACE Committee
- ❖ Vice Chair for the Human Rights Committee
- ❖ Co-Chair of the Union Power Caucus
- ❖ UP Delegate to both the national Labor Notes Conference (2018) and national UCORE Conference (2019)
- ❖ Delegate to State Council of CTA and member of Teacher Evaluation and Academic Freedom Committee
- ❖ Outreach and liaison to DSA leading up to UTLA's strike
- ❖ Coordinated with LA Federation of Labor during the strike & graduate of the LA Fed's Civic Leadership Academy
- ❖ Did member outreach for UTLA's Re-Card campaign, before and after the Janus Supreme Court case

As Area Director, she will bring a zeal for member empowerment and an ethos of racial and economic justice unionism; key drives in her work as a teacher and as Chapter Chair. She believes faculty must have a clarity of understanding when it comes to the contract, and they must assert their rights in order to maintain them. UTLA's successful strike taught us that members always derive their power from continual organizing efforts at school sites and through collective action. Only through collective efforts will we get Schools and Communities First passed and ensure the turnaround of the school board. When teachers fight, we win!

Elect the ENTIRE Valley East Team!

We are committed to empowering our members to take on bully principals, enforce the contract and build on our power from the strike! We will fight off the co-locations in our area, encourage new leadership within our ranks and strengthen relationships with community allies. We are far from being finished. We are the team that will build power together with you!
