

Jennifer Villaryo

for Board of Directors, UTLA West Area

While a teacher for 15 years and now a salary point adviser, Jennifer Villaryo has consistently worked to improve education for teachers and students in LAUSD through her involvement with UTLA. She is a steering committee member in West Area and a cluster leader. Jennifer believes that all students deserve a wonderful education and all teachers deserve a classroom and school setting that lets them teach at their highest level. She is a member of CTA State Council, IFT Think Tank and the PACE Committee, and is currently in a year-long program to facilitate conversations about race and diversity. Jennifer believes that an organized school site has the power to improve their school, build amazing programs and embrace the community, so that every community member gets the school that they deserve.
