

Juan Ramirez

for AFT Vice President

My name is Juan Ramirez. I am the current AFT Vice President. It is my desire to run for a second term because I think it is important to continue the work we have started at UTLA.

I feel fortunate to be part of this team of officers because all of them have put in a lot of work these past years to make sure that UTLA becomes an organizing union.

I plan to continue this work when I am re-elected. I will continue to visit schools because I understand that I need to be close to our members to give them a sense of support. The attacks on public education will not stop, and billionaires will continue to attempt to privatize our schools. We need to be ready to defend public education, and Union Power is the team we need to continue the fight.
