for Board of Directors, UTLA East Area

Marcela Chagoya is a dedicated Special Education teacher of 18 years. Five years ago she began her journey in union service as a chapter co-chair at Stevenson College and Career Prep where she started her career as a paraprofessional and is currently teaching students requiring Special Education services. Since then she has served as a UTLA East Area Steering Committee member among many other committees at UTLA. As a CTA State Council elected member, she has served in the Special Education Committee and currently as the Secretary of the Civil Rights in Education Policy Review subcommittee. She also serves as an elected delegate to the NEA Representative Assembly and as the chair of the CFT Special Education Committee.
