

Marie Germaine

for Board of Directors, UTLA West Area

Marie is in her 23rd year of teaching in West Area. She has 17 years experience as a Chapter Chair, and is currently serving as a Cluster Leader and Steering Committee member. She is a National Board Certified Teacher, a Mentor teacher, and a member of the Institute for Teaching Think Tank. As an educator at a Teacher Powered School she strives to create strong and cohesive teaching and learning environments that positively support student achievement and values the voice of the teacher as the expert practitioner. Marie is committed to working collaboratively to ensure that our students have great public schools in their communities where the needs of the whole child are met.
