

Mark Ramos

for Board of Directors, UTLA North Area

Mark Ramos has over a decade of classroom experience teaching social studies in the Belmont Area and in Northeast LA. Mark was a RIF'ed teacher for 3 years and has dedicated his time to organizing for the rights of UTLA teachers. Before becoming a teacher, he was a union organizer in healthcare unions and has also spent the last 17 years organizing the Filipino/Filipino-American community. Mark hopes to expand our vision of community schools and beat back the privatizers -- for good.
