

Rebecca Solomon

for Board of Directors, UTLA North Area

Rebecca has been a teacher in LAUSD for more than 20 years. For all those years, she has been active in UTLA and in community organizations. Our strike moved our schools closer to what our students deserve. As a member of the Union Power team, Rebecca is excited to keep UTLA on the path toward social justice for our students and school communities. UTLA needs to be at the front of the struggle to get more mental health staff in schools, to continue to reduce class size, to end racial profiling and the use of pepper spray against students, and to fully fund our schools. Together, we can make Black lives matter in schools, create sanctuary for immigrant students, and dramatically improve schools for our majority black and brown students.
