

Rosa Jimenez

for Board of Directors, UTLA North Area

Rosa is a long time history teacher at the UCLA Community School (RFK), parent, and community organizer in Students Deserve. She is one of the founders of Reclaim Our School Los Angeles and current steering committee member; her work with the coalition played a critical role during our strike efforts to bargain for the common good and continue to build parent, student, and teacher spaces to win more funding, stop privatization, and build community schools. She is the co-chair of the LAUSD/UTLA Community Schools Steering Committee, which is driving the city-wide effort to implement community schools in our highest need communities. As an LAUSD parent, she has led many fights alongside parents in North Area and through Students Deserve. As a North Area Director she hopes to continue to grow our capacity to organize, work with families and community, and fight for equity and racial justice in our schools.
