

Yolanda Tamayo

for Board of Directors, UTLA East Area

Yolanda has been teaching at Lorena St. ES for 26 years and currently serves as UTLA Chapter Chair and co-location site coordinator. She is the treasurer of the UTLA East Area Steering Committee and a member of the UTLA Board of Directors. Yolanda received the WHO award in 2017 and the Unsung Hero award in 2018. Committed to working toward ending the threat against our students' right to free and high-quality public education, she serves as co-chair of the UTLA Task Force Against Privatization and Prop 39, which discusses issues related to charter co-location of our campuses. She also has been instrumental in building a relationship between UTLA East Area and Padres Contra la Privatizacion, a community organization fighting charter co-locations. Yolanda supports parents and educators in our collective fight-back against billionaire privatizers and destructive tactics.
